California Water Plan 2009

Wednesday's Update Sept. 26, 2007

Final Regional Workshop set for Fortuna
The last Regional Workshop will be held in Fortuna on Oct. 11. Folks on the North Coast should mark their calendars. Details will be posted soon on the Water Plan Web site.

The annual plenary meeting now less than a month away
Make plans to attend the Water Plan’s annual conference-style meeting that brings together stakeholders, Advisory Committee, State Agency Steering Committee, Tribal groups, regional representatives, and State agency staff. It will be held in Sacramento on Oct. 22 and 23. Details of the meeting can be found here on our Web site.

Poster session opportunities available during plenary meeting
During the October 22-23 CWP Update Plenary meeting in Sacramento, space will be made available for water stakeholders to provide materials and poster information regarding programs, initiatives, and projects. Please contact Ginny Sajac at vsajac@water.ca.gov or 916-653-7101 if you are interested in presenting materials.

Regional Workshop summaries available on Water Plan Web site
CWP Update summaries from nine Regional Workshops are now posted on the Web. Go to the table at the bottom of the page and click on the appropriate summary link to find the summary for your workshop. The flip chart transcripts, recording each table group discussion, are provided at the end of each summary.

Water Resources Control Board posts proposed recycled water policy
A recurring theme heard at the Regional Workshops was the need for a statewide policy regarding approved uses for recycled water to facilitate greater use of this resource. At the All-Regions Forum in Ontario, Liz Haven of the State Water Resources Control Board relayed that the Water Boards have just posted a draft Recycled Water Policy online here.
